Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 2-8 which have been renumbered as 1-7 respectively are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Regarding claims 1-7, the prior art of record fails to teach of an internet phone comprising a switching controller where the controller is a controller for switching to a connectionless protocol when the internet is in a congestion situation below a threshold and for switching to a connection protocol when the internet exceeds the threshold. The closest reference, Asai et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,991,291), teaches of an internet telephone that transmits and receives a call data through an internet, but fails to teach of the internet phone comprising a switching controller where the controller is a controller for switching to a connectionless protocol when the internet is in a congestion situation below a threshold and for switching to a connection protocol when the internet exceeds the threshold. Additionally, Hikita (JP 2000151680 A), discloses a switching controller for controlling and switching a protocol of a data transfer responding to a congestion situation of the internet, but fails to teach of the switching controller switching to a connectionless protocol when the internet is in a congestion situation below a threshold and for switching to a connection protocol when the internet exceeds the threshold.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
